OneLocal Bank Promotes John Crowley to SVP, Senior Commercial Lending Officer

NORWOOD, MA (July 14, 2026) — OneLocal Bank is pleased to announce the promotion of John Crowley to the role of SVP, Senior Commercial Lending Officer. In his new role, Crowley will oversee the bank's commercial lending department while continuing to manage his own client portfolio.

Crowley joined the bank's commercial department in 2004, holding positions of increasing responsibility, most recently serving as First Vice President, Senior Commercial Lending Officer. He has a 40-year career within the banking industry, with expertise in commercial lending and banking, loans, and credit analysis. He received his Bachelor of Arts in Economics from College of the Holy Cross and his Master of Business Administration in Finance from University of Michigan's Stephen M. Ross School of Business.

Crowley shared, "I am excited to take on this expanded role and to continue working alongside a talented team that is committed to helping local businesses grow and succeed. We have established a strong reputation for responsive service, sound decision-making, and meaningful client relationships, and I look forward to building on that foundation while supporting OneLocal Bank's continued growth."

On this change, OneLocal Bank President, Julie McDermott, stated, "I am thrilled to appoint John to his new role. I have worked with him for many years and feel confident his leadership, dedication, and expertise will be key to furthering the bank's focus on growth."
